Divorce and Remarriage Is Adultery

- 1Co 7:39 CAB A wife has been bound by law as long as her husband lives; but if her husband also dies, she is free [ἐλευθέρα – lit. she is a loosed person] to be married to whom she desires, only in the Lord.

- Rom 7:2-3 CAB For the woman who is under a man has been bound by law to the living husband. But if the husband should die, she is released from the law of the husband. 3 So then, while the husband is living, she will be called an adulteress if she becomes married to a different husband; but if her husband should die, she is free from the law, so that she is not an adulteress, having become married to a different husband.

The word ἀδύτων αἵματος (in 1Co 7:15, also v. 21-23) is never used for marriage even once in whole Bible: Acts 7:6; Rom. 6:18, 22; 1Co 7:15; 9:19; Gal. 4:3; Tit. 2:3; 2Pe. 2:19; – ἀδύτων (1Co 7:39) is the Bible word for being “bound into one flesh,” as it is also used in Rom 7:2, but not in what is falsely called “the Pauline Exception” (1Co 7:12 & 15).

1Co 7:10-11 CAB Now to those who have married I command, yet not I, but the Lord [commanded in Mat 19:6]; A wife is not to be separated from her husband—11 and even if she does separate (ἔξω θύρα καὶ γυναικεῖον) – separation has happened to her – the Greek is in the “Passive Voice”), let her remain unmarried or be reconciled to her husband—and a husband is not to divorce his wife.
